Staff Uniform

One great improvement in recent years is to attend a club in which all the indoor staff has a sensible uniform. The reception/administration staff, and the bar and catering staff will each have their own uniform. Nothing looks worse than to be served in the bar or dining room with staff wearing jeans and generally looking untidy.

At many clubs now uniform is also provided for the greenkeeping staff and this has the immediate effect of making them stand out whilst working on the course.

A smart uniform gives the place an immediate feeling of being well managed. If you decide to do this then you need to budget carefully to allow for dry cleaning and replacements so that uniforms are clean and fit well. So only provide if you have a budget and the policy to maintain a good standard.
