

DUDDINGSTON GOLF CLUB

General Manager

Situated to the East of Edinburgh in the lee of Arthur's Seat, Duddingston Golf Club has a long prestigious history dating back to 1895. Primarily a Members Club with a membership of over 700, Duddingston's primary function is the provision of social golf.

The Club is close to Duddingston Village in the Duddingston Conservation Area and many popular residential areas, as well as being in close proximity to all of Scotland's main transport routes. Visitors and guests are most welcome to both the course and clubhouse.

Duddingston Golf Club has some of the best facilities available to any golf course in Edinburgh and the Lothians, including a Championship Golf Course, Clubhouse, Pro Shop and Practice Facilities. Known for its challenging design and sweeping fairways, the course is one of the outstanding parkland courses in Scotland and has hosted professional & amateur events, as well as being a popular venue for society and corporate outings.

This forward-thinking, progressive club is now looking for a capable and motivated general manager to help build on recently laid foundations for the next chapter of the club's future. Their role will be to:

- Work with the Club's Board to deliver a Strategic Plan
- Lead the whole team to enhance the experience of members and visitors
- Continue to grow revenues at the club

Closing date for applications is Friday
29th October 2021

In order to meet these challenges, the successful candidate must demonstrate:

- A proven record in managing a service-based organisation
- A thorough understanding of the operational and governance demands of a private members golf club
- Ability to make effective use of IT (Intelligent Golf, Xero, website)
- An outgoing personality to positively influence the performance of other members of the team and engage with external agencies/stakeholders

An attractive package commensurate with experience is on offer to the successful candidate.

This senior management position is being handled by Contemporary Club Leadership.
